

Dance

Department Chair: Carol Estey, M.A.

The Department of Dance offers a bachelor of fine arts - a performance degree that qualified students can earn in three years and two summers.

Dance at Stephens College combines professional training, discipline and creative expression within a liberal arts environment. Steeped in tradition, the department is known for developing a well-rounded dancer prepared to explore many job possibilities in the professional world. The students are encouraged to achieve their greatest potential through high expectations, gentle guidance, and excellent training.

Our outstanding professional faculty provides training in modern dance, classical ballet, jazz dance, musical theatre dance, and tap dance. Guest artists broaden the dancer's technical foundation with study in world dance forms such as Flamenco, East Indian, African, and Russian Character. Pointe work and partnering are also offered to complement the dancer's training. Students develop self-expression as they explore improvisation and learn the process of choreography, and are offered the opportunity to study teaching practices and to practice teaching through our Dance Pedagogy course.

Students are introduced to other aspects of dance as a performing art form through such courses as lighting for dance, music for dance, and dance history. Advanced choreography classes where students create original work culminate in studio showcases. The Student New Works Concert and the Senior Capstone Concert are fully produced by the students and held in the Warehouse Theatre offering the students a venue to present their choreographic expression to the public. As a dance major, the student becomes a member of Stephens College Dance Company. It is a faculty-directed company that performs works created by the faculty and guest artists. The company performs fully produced concerts in the Macklanburg Playhouse. Students may also audition for the Dimensions Repertory Dance Company, a select group of dancers that represent the department in several community performances and for special events at Stephens. Other performing opportunities for both companies include lecture demonstrations, children's concerts, community arts festivals, and the American College Dance Festival performances.

All Dance Majors are required to participate in Stephens Summer Dance, an intensive six weeks of study taught by visiting guest artists and giving the student the opportunity to experience new styles of dance. During the Summer Intensive, students explore the creative process in ballet, modern, jazz, and/or musical theatre dance with internationally renowned, innovative choreographers. The Summer Intensive features a conservatory approach offering multiple classical and/or contemporary technique classes taught daily by our faculty and guest artists. A fully staged concert of choreographic works created by all teaching artists during this intensive study is performed at the close of Stephens Summer Dance.

Dance degree candidates are evaluated each semester to encourage their artistic and technical development. A career in the performing arts is a challenging choice and this is a highly professional program that demands a strong work ethic, discipline, and a high level of proficiency. Those students who fail to display these necessary attributes could be advised to choose another major, put on department probation or asked to leave the program.

Stephens dance graduates have found careers performing in a variety of venues. Many dance with professional modern, ballet and jazz dance companies; in Broadway and touring musicals; and with the Radio City Music Hall Rockettes. They have become teachers, choreographers and directors. Some have had their own companies and many continue the study of dance in professional or graduate schools.

Requirements for the B.F.A. Major in Dance

The bachelor of fine arts major in dance requires completion of all liberal arts requirements and 74 hours in the major. This must include two summers of Stephens Summer Dance and 30 hours of technique credit, regardless of original placement, with a minimum of 10 hours at the Tech III level. Program responsibilities include ushering, costume and technical crews and set-ups and strikes for all dance concerts.

Students must earn a C- or better in all required courses within the Bachelor of Fine Arts in Dance degree. Students may not continue to the next level class until the prerequisite class is passed with a C- or better. Because of the strenuous nature of the program, students must stay fit and healthy in order to succeed. The dance faculty will meet with each student twice during the year to evaluate progress in the major and provide feedback for improvement. Each student is required to follow the requirements outlined in the Dance Major's Handbook.

Minors must audition for placement into the major classes. If they are not of a level to participate in these dance major classes they will be advised to take dance for non-majors and may not become Dance Minors until they qualify for a DAN 112 class. This will protect the integrity of our BFA program and must be carefully monitored. Students must earn a C- or better in all required courses within the Minor in Dance. Students may not continue to the next level class until the prerequisite class is passed with a C- or better. Also, the minor may audition and participate in student choreographic works only. Since the focus of our BFA is performance based, the faculty and guest artist works are opportunities that must be limited to the students who will pursue a professional dance career or will be teaching on the professional level later in their careers.
