

Spring 2017

Dear Student,

Please follow the directions below to complete loan exit counseling. Federal regulations require you to complete this process. During this on-line exit counseling session, the Financial Aid Office is available to answer any questions or concerns you might have regarding repayment of your Federal Direct Stafford loans.

If you are unable to complete electronic loan exit counseling, you may request exit counseling information by contacting the Financial Aid Office.

You may complete electronic exit loan counseling by following these directions:

1. Go to studentloans.gov
2. Click on Exit Counseling button and follow the screen directions.
3. You will need your FSA ID to log in.
4. You can go to www.nslds.ed.gov to review all federal loans you have obtained during your academic career.
5. Another resource you might want to utilize is www.myfedloan.org to help manage your account, make payments and view payment plans.

If you have any questions, please contact the Financial Aid Office at 573-876-7106 or finaid@stephens.edu.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.

Sincerely,
Stephens College, Financial Aid Office
