Adjunct Faculty - Gross Anatomy
Physician Assistant Program, School of Health Sciences

Stephens College PA Program will matriculate its inaugural class in fall of 2016. The 27-month curriculum culminates in the conferral of a Master of Physician Assistant Studies. The fall semester of the first year curriculum includes gross anatomy with cadaver dissection.

Responsibilities:

- Serve as Course Director and teach lecture and lab in the 18-week gross anatomy course
- Evaluate students according to PA Program policies
- Participate in PA program meetings as assigned

Position Requirements:

- PhD in Anatomy or related field OR doctorate level health professional degree (MD, DO, PT, etc.) including graduate level courses in gross human anatomy; Applicants with a Master’s degree and significant experience in gross anatomy will be considered.
- One or more years of teaching experience
- Experience with cadaver dissection

All educational degrees must be from a regionally accredited institution
Must possess excellent communication skills (verbal and written)
Ability to work well with students and colleagues

Stephens College is a women’s college proudly located in Columbia, MO, home to a flagship public university and two private colleges. Since our founding in 1833, we’ve been offering innovative, career-focused programs sound in the liberal arts with a focus on creative arts and sciences. We take a hands-on, experiential approach to education, making sure our students get both quality classroom instruction and external work experiences that complement their coursework. Stephens College prepares students to become leaders and innovators in a rapidly changing world. We also provide graduate, online and certificate programs available to women and men as part of our commitment to lifelong learning.

The college prides itself on fostering a close-knit faculty community and on providing a welcoming, learning-centered environment for students. The learning community is distinguished by small classes, close engagement with faculty, intellectual rigor and vibrant programs of study that reflect the College’s mission of lifelong learning. Stephens College contributes to the vibrant social and cultural climate that makes Columbia such a desirable place to live.

To apply: Complete the Stephens College on-line application form and then a current curriculum vitae, a list of five references with contact information, and a cover letter that describes how the applicant’s qualifications and experience align with the job description to humanresources@stephens.edu.

Review of applicants will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled. Employment will require a criminal background check.

Stephens College is an Equal Opportunity Employer. A diverse community on campus is valued, so women, minorities, veterans, and individuals with disabilities are encouraged to apply.

Smoke Free Campus